

Rice Future - Design and Analysis

Note: Scope for Rice 2.3 and beyond has not been determined yet. This page includes analysis for items previously assigned to Rice 2.1 which may be included in future versions.

- A consistent documentation framework for all Rice components (see KRICE Documentation)
- Allow for XML import operations to be decentralized
- Expand support for XML Import and export of data
- Implement ability define a custom process "flow" for exception routing cases
- Implement Escalation Functionality
- Improve the Action list and Doc Search UI
- KRRM-12 - Implement Escalation Functionality
- KRRM-146 - Integrate entities that are used by multiple modules or multiple applications.
- Research the approach for requirements for a GUI for KEW
- Rice 2.4 Release Check List
- Standardize Configuration Parameter and System Parameter Names
- Support for Derby databases and automatic database generation support of development, unit testing efforts, quickstarts, etc.
- XML import-export